Scroll through to read the Terms and Conditions of conducting a physician search, as well as the Disclaimer of Warranties and Liabilities. If you agree to these terms and conditions, you may continue to use the Doctor Finder.

The ACOEM Doctor Finder Service is compiled and published by the American College of Occupational and Environmental Medicine ("ACOEM") as a reference source of demographic and professional information on individual licensed occupational medicine physicians. The only permitted uses of ACOEM's Doctor Finder Service are for (i) an employer or insurer who is seeking a doctor to provide services and (ii) the personal convenience of individual members of the general public to facilitate quick access to information about physicians with whom they may be consulting regarding medical services and (iii) individual physicians or their staff to view their personal listings or those of colleagues for professional purposes such as patient referrals.

ACOEM reserves the right and hereby notifies you that it will be monitoring all use of this website for compliance with the terms and conditions of this agreement - including the permitted use described above. ACOEM shall block your use of this product indefinitely should we determine, at our sole discretion, that your use is beyond that permitted above. Neither the ACOEM Doctor Finder Service nor any of its data, listings or other constituent elements may be downloaded, republished, resold, duplicated or "scraped", in whole or in part, for any purpose other than the personal uses permitted above.

The use of the ACOEM Doctor Finder Service by hospitals, managed care organizations, PPOs or other commercial entities or individuals to verify the credentials of physicians is prohibited. The database of physician information which drives the ACOEM Doctor Finder Service does not contain sufficient information with which to verify physician credentials under the standards of the Joint Commission (JCAHO), National Committee for Quality Assurance (NCQA) or the Utilization Review Accreditation Committee (URAC).
