

Faculty and Planner Disclosure Information

In accordance with the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education’s ACCME Standards for Integrity and Independence in Accredited Continuing Education, all accredited CME providers are required to disclose to the activity audience the relevant financial relationships of planners, faculty, and others in control of educational content with ineligible companies in the past 24 months. Ineligible companies are those whose primary business is producing, marketing, selling, re-selling, or distributing healthcare products used by or on patients. In the case of an individual for whom a conflict cannot be mitigated, that individual shall not participate in the development or presentation of the CME activity.

Please see the Faculty Disclosure Information below.

ACOEM Staff have no relevant financial relationships unless listed below.

The faculty and the AOHC Program Planning Committee have no relevant financial relationships unless listed below.

All of the relevant financial relationships listed for these individuals have been mitigated.
